

PIERRE HILLION

The de Picciotto Chaired Professor of Alternative Investments Professor of Finance at INSEAD

Pierre Hillion is the de Picciotto Chaired Professor of Alternative Investments at INSEAD, held the Shell Professorship in Finance from 1999 to 2004 and was a Visiting Professor at the University of California in Los Angeles and the California Institute of Technology. He is a CEPR Research Fellow. He received his MBA from the Ecole des Hautes Etudes Commerciales (HEC) in France, holds a DEA from the University Paris-Dauphine and is a PhD graduate of the University of California in Los Angeles. He is currently based at INSEAD Singapore.

Pierre Hillion teaches in different executive programmes given at INSEAD and at the Amsterdam Institute of Finance.

Pierre Hillion was the recipient of several awards from the Q. Group, NATO, ECMI and the BSI Gamma Foundation. He has published extensively in the fields of asset and option pricing models and market microstructure.

His articles have been published in academic journals such as the Review of Financial Studies, the Journal of Mathematical Finance, the Journal of Finance, the Journal of Econometrics, the Journal of Political Economy and the Journal of Financial Economics. He is the Associate Editor of the Journal of Empirical Finance and the Journal of Financial Markets. He is the co-editor of a book entitled "European Capital Markets with a Single Currency" published by Oxford University Press in 1999.

Pierre Hillion works as an Academic Advisor to Union Bancaire Privée and to Lombard Odier Darier Hentsch in Geneva.